Nant-y-Cwm Steiner School

We are seeking a passionate and dynamic Games Teacher to join our welcoming and supportive teaching team. The ideal candidate will have a love for games and physical education, and a deep understanding of the importance of rhythm, play and movement in child development. This is an exciting opportunity to inspire and guide students in their physical growth while fostering teamwork, creativity, and a love for outdoor activities. Support for those new to Waldorf education will be given.

Our setting is nestled within extensive grounds as well as having access to the neighbouring woodland and the children regularly explore the outdoors in our grounds, local woodland and footpaths. We support staff to undertake professional development through mentoring, supervision and external qualifications and courses.

There are a number of other openings and opportunities within the school if additional hours are desirable. Prospective candidates are warmly welcomed to contact or visit the school.

Start date: As soon as possible of September 2025

Contract: Permanent subject to six month probationary period.

Nant-y-Cwm Steiner School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check (with relevant barred list check) will be required as well as two satisfactory references including one from the applicant's most recent employer.

Safeguarding Statement:

Nant-y-cwm Steiner School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We particularly welcome applications from under represented groups including ethnicity, gender, transgender, age, disability, sexual orientation or religion.
